

March 2012

I have been impressed with Amy Eisner since I met her. She was recommended by a former colleague who said, "If you want the job done, you need Amy Eisner she doesn't back down." As a parent who has been overwhelmed and frustrated with the so-called public school "experts" who felt that they knew my child better than I did, Amy and I connected from the start. She responded to my initial inquiry within 24 hours and has been working diligently on my child's behalf ever since. She is knowledgeable, professional and definitely a "bull dog" that will not back down when it comes to advocating for a parent and their child. She has the child's best interest at heart and is passionate when it comes to their rights. She has been honest, open, and explained every step, test, and process along the way.

She laid out the plan prior to the PPT and we came away with the outcomes we desired. I couldn't have been more pleased. It was the first time I felt the school listened to what was said and we were moving in the right direction. I was at ease because I had someone in my corner for once and felt Amy genuinely understood my child.

I finally feel for the first time that we are on the right track to getting my child the services needed. I have Amy to thank because I would not have gotten this far without her "refuse to give up attitude" and her compassion for my both me and my child.
