

After having PPT's where my husband and I felt as though we were not listened to about our son and the school was the one that knew him best, it was a relief to have Amy accompany us to our PPT. Since Amy was there to represent us, it was finally a wonderful feeling to leave the PPT feeling as though we were finally listened to. We highly recommend Amy to any family who feels they need respectful representation at their PPT.

Mike & Lisa After having PPT's where my husband and I felt as though we were not listened to about our son and the school was the one that knew him best, it was a relief to have Amy accompany us to our PPT. Since Amy was there to represent us, it was finally a wonderful feeling to leave the PPT feeling as though we were finally listened to. We highly recommend Amy to any family who feels they need respectful representation at their PPT.

Mike & Lisa from Wethersfield

April 2013